

Connecting with society: 'We appreciate the opportunity to work together and get to know the Bull Charge beneficiaries,' says Mr Dhar, seen here with children from Fei Yue Community Services at SEA Aquarium

A day at SEA Aquarium for Fei Yue kids

CHILDREN from Fei Yue Community Services were treated to a special excursion to the SEA Aquarium at Resorts World Sentosa recently.

Fifty volunteers from Singapore Exchange (SGX) and Noble Group spent a day with the 100 children from Fei Yue Community Services, one of four beneficiaries of SGX's annual charity run Bull Charge that is now into its 10th year.

The outreach programme is one of the many events SGX has been organising together with corporate sponsors to help needy and underprivileged groups feel more connected with society.

This year, Noble Group, a Diamond Bull sponsor, contributed $100,000 to meet Bull Charge's $3 million target.

Chew Sutat, SGX executive vice-president who is spearheading Bull

Charge 2013, commended Noble Group for setting a leading example of corporate citizenship.

Said Neil Dhar, director, Noble Group: "We appreciate the opportunity to work together and get to know the Bull Charge beneficiaries. We look forward to continuing our partnership with the SGX during the Bull Charge and outreach activities as they are rewarding experiences for all involved."
